

Press release

Zurich, 5 August 2025

Fabienne Hockenjos joins the Executive Board of Rahn+Bodmer Co.

Fabienne Hockenjos has been appointed to head up the Financial Services division of Switzerland's oldest private bank, starting 1 September 2025.

In her new role as Head of Financial Services, she will join the Executive Board. She will be responsible for Rahn+Bodmer Co.'s entire investment expertise and securities trading, leading a team of around 25 employees.

Fabienne Hockenjos has a strong record of management and financial market experience. Her tenure at Basellandschaftliche Kantonalbank (BLKB) began in 2014, culminating more recently in her roles as Chief Investment Officer and Head of Sustainable Asset Management. Her prior experience includes several years in equity research. She holds a CFA Charter and an MSc in Finance, Controlling and Banking from the University of Basel.

"We are very pleased to welcome Fabienne Hockenjos, a recognised expert with extensive experience in asset management and investment advisory services. With her expertise and working alongside our established specialists, she will significantly contribute to the further development and strengthening of our investment capabilities," says Urs Angst, Chairman of the Executive Board at Rahn+Bodmer Co., who has been managing the Financial Services division on an interim basis since June 2024.

Rahn+Bodmer Co.

A family business founded in 1750, Rahn+Bodmer Co. is Switzerland's oldest private bank. Its five partners, Peter R. Rahn, Martin H. Bidermann, Dr Christian Rahn, Christian R. Bidermann and Jay Bidermann, are the third- and fourth-generation representatives of their families. As traditional private bankers, the partners are fully responsible for the liabilities of Rahn+Bodmer Co. By eschewing proprietary products, taking a long-term view and pursuing an entrepreneurial approach to business, the Bank guarantees its clients independent asset management, targeted tax advice and comprehensive financial, pension and estate planning.
